

Kabbalah, You and Cosmic Christ — Part One

1

What is Kabbalah?

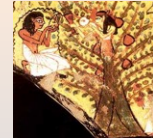

2

What is the Tree of Life?

- Gen 2:9: And the LORD God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground--trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
- Proverbs 3:18 She [Wisdom] is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: And happy is every one that retaineth her.
- Acts 10:39: "And we are witnesses of all things which he did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree."
- Acts 13:29: "And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb."
- Acts 13:29: "And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb."
- Rev 2:7: He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.
- Rev 22:2: On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

Also in many other faiths

- Isis and Osiris came from the acacia tree known as Lusaaset which the Egyptians considered the tree of life, referring to it as the "tree in which life and death are enclosed."
- The tree of life appears in the writings of the Baha'i Faith where it can refer to the manifestation of God, a great teacher who appears to humanity from age to age. The concept can be broken down still further, with the Manifestation as the roots and trunk of the tree and his followers as the branches and leaves. The fruit produced by the tree nourishes an ever-advancing civilization.

Assiyah Yezirah Beriah Azilut

The image displays four Kabbalistic diagrams, known as Seder Sephiroth, arranged horizontally. Each diagram is a complex geometric structure of spheres (sephiroth) connected by lines, enclosed within a circle. From left to right: 1. Earth (Assiyah): Labeled 'עשיה' at the top and 'EARTH' at the bottom. The diagram features a prominent red and white color scheme. 2. Water (Yezirah): Labeled 'יצירה' at the top and 'WATER' at the bottom. The diagram features a blue and white color scheme. 3. Air (Beriah): Labeled 'בריאה' at the top and 'AIR' at the bottom. The diagram features a blue and white color scheme. 4. Fire (Azilut): Labeled 'אצילות' at the top and 'FIRE' at the bottom. The diagram features a white and blue color scheme.

Four Holy Creatures

The image shows two representations of the Four Holy Creatures. On the left is a wooden relief carving from a medieval manuscript, depicting four figures in a grid: an eagle (top left), an ox (top right), a lion (bottom left), and a human (bottom right), with a central circular medallion containing a white bull. On the right is a medieval manuscript illumination of a seated figure, likely a prophet or saint, holding a book and a staff, surrounded by four circular medallions depicting the Four Holy Creatures: an eagle, an ox, a lion, and a human.

13

Four levels in the Tree of Life

14

Four Levels

Divinity (God)

Christ
(Jesus/Buddha/Your Higher Self)

Repentance
(Metanoia – ‘think again’)

Unrepentance
(unthinking)

15

Four Levels Jesus and You

Your God-Self. Unity. Ultimate Destiny, Peace, Enlightenment. No separation. Divinity.

Who you hope to be/are meant to be (Jesus as example of enlightenment), dissolving suffering, forgiveness, clarity, joy. Spirit.

Who you really are. (development of Jesus' soul as a healer and leader) Thinking for yourself, ambition, individuation, leadership, making commitments and decisions, free will. Self and Soul.

Who the world says you are and who you think you are. Physical reality of you – your genetics, family, tribe, environment, religion, beliefs. Ego.
